PUBLIC COMMENTS

Tara Angus – 1514 Arends Street, Jension – OAISD board candidate. Provided her background including school and employment background. Provided her reason for running for the board.

Kyle Williams 185557 Pinecrest Lane SL – disagree with extended the school year – provided reasons. Provided child's experience in high school. Opinon – not about education, suspect it is about the contract, no educating the children. Rescide the additional wek of school.

17763 Bridepath, Sara Troast- strong urge end of school back to June 7. Believe is to be the tgrust sentiement of parent of SL. Only area school not accepting the wiver? No educational value by adding the week. Extra cost to the district, something about the teachers filing a grievance and it costing the district. Urged to reverting back to original calendar.

Vicogors Fogel, 15358 Oakdridge Dr – 2 children at Jeffers. Thanked board for being able to speak and listen to parent – how are going to address student with IEP and low performing students. Every day matters to those children and hoping that making the best decision for all children.

Kelly Larosn 19373 Rosemary Road – thanked Board for listening – all care about quality of education of our school and want the best for our children. How will the content be different? If we add the week – is there any chance to the content to what is taught? If content is different, then yes extend week. If not, no extenstion. Concered about the cost to the district. If content not gong to be in that week hate to see the dollars spent if they could be used otherwise.
